

TurnKey Internet Launches Ultimate Web Hosting Package

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Albany, NY, June 15, 2010—Web hosting provider TurnKey Internet today announced the launch of its all-inclusive Ultimate Web Hosting package, offering the ultimate collection of bundled web hosting software and scripts. This package is an all-in-one program for getting your website up quickly and securely, and includes all the tools you need to create a professional business presence online. For a limited time, TurnKey is offering the first six months free for new customers.

TurnKey Internet's new Ultimate Web Hosting package features RvSiteBuilder, cPanel, WHMXtra, Fantastico, Softaculous and R1Soft Continuous Data Protection, with value add-ons that include dedicated IP addresses and a free SSL certificate (a $69 value). With their business and ecommerce plans, TurnKey has bundled 15,000+ professional web design templates, 100,000+ professional web graphic files and 2,000 ready-to-go PHP/CGI website scripts and tools.

"Our all-inclusive, ultimate web hosting package provides top-of-the-line features and an unprecedented collection of add-ons and bonuses, combined with our unmatched customer service and support," said Adam Wills, President and CEO of TurnKey Internet. "When we say 'all-inclusive,' we really mean everything. To use the car dealer terminology, we're offering the 'fully-loaded' package."

With the addition of free Voxwire Web Conferencing to the web hosting palette, TurnKey Internet is mobilizing its web conferencing subsidiary, providing its web hosting clients with state-of-the-art online meeting tools. As always, TurnKey Internet guarantees 100% satisfaction, 100% network uptime and 24/7/365 technical support.
